Bengaluru, 16th October, 2015: Rolling Frames Film Society today announced the third edition of one of the biggest international film summits in India, Rolling Frames Film Summit 2015. The society will be hosting an International Film Festival, art exhibition, seminars, master classes, pitching forums as well as award ceremonies on the 24th and 25th of October 2015 at Manpho Convention Center, Bangalore.

The 2015 edition promises to be even bigger and better, taking place at the largest screening venue in Bangalore, India, with a potential of accommodating around 3500 people. The summit is focused on providing learning experience for short filmmakers in their journey towards becoming feature length filmmakers and helping them to fine-tune their art. Rolling Frames Film Summit 2015 has already got participation from over 51 countries, 1000 films.

Speaking on the occasion, Harsha Setty, Founder President of Rolling Frames Film Summit said "Recently we have witnessed many talented and aspiring filmmakers who have showcased some of the most excellent and brilliant short films and documentaries and through this unique initiative we seek to encourage these budding filmmakers. Through our programme 'Pitching Forum' we intend to select some of the potential film makers and fund their future projects. This year, we are expecting a much more vibrant and interactive experience for all the viewers and the participants with plethora of subjects and styles projected by various talented filmmakers in India and abroad."

Also available at the Film Summit will be prominent personalities like Imtiaz Ali, Biren Ghose, Swapna Jare, Sandeep Marwah, Chase Bowman, Dr. Sabit Subasic, Ambassador of Bosnia and Herzegovina, Meenakshi Shedde, Sanjay Chauhan, Anup Bandari, Namrata Rao, Ricky Kej, Aneez Basmee, Neeraj Patak, Yogiraj Bhat, Yunus Bukhari, Shiladitya Bora etc.

"I am honoured to be associated with such an esteemed Summit. I strongly believe that there are many budding film makers who have the capability to reach to the next level and all they require is a little nudge to reach there. Rolling Frames Film Summit 2015 is one such platform for that provides the sort of exposure and guidance these artists deserve. They get an opportunity to interact with world renowned artists and gain insight into the art of film making," said Legendary Kannada Film Director, T S Nagabharana.

This year, the summit will see some of the Bafta, Grammy, Filmfare and National award winning directors, producers, cinematographers, editors, supervisors, screenplay/script writers and visual effects experts as speakers and mentors catering to film enthusiasts, aspiring film makers, talented artists, students of various institutes, kids and foreign nationals. In addition to this, Grammy/BAFTA award winners as well as the business heads of production houses and studios will also participating in the event.
